What About The Days of Noah?
Gen. 5:28-6:8

The Bible tells us that the days of Noah were very evil and for that reason God brought His judgment and destroy all except for eight people of Noah's family.

Every person has heard and knows about Noah, but not all believed the record was true simply dismissing it as a story, legend or folklore.

* About the only thing that has changed in our "Post-Christian" nation is that there may be some in our day who have never heard about Noah!

The Bible has been dismissed as unreliable by public schools, Universities and the many in authority, so the average person has been deceived by the Godless people of our nation, having no fear of God.

But Noah stood alone in the midst of an evil generation as a man of faith, not bending to the evil of the day, instead he became the instrument of God to warn of the judgment to come, so we must do!

So we want to look at Noah from the world he lived in by looking at three recorded facts. Gen. 5:28-6:8

- I. The proximity of Adam to the days of Noah.
Gen. 5:28-32

- II. The perversity of angels in the days of Noah. Gen. 6:1-4
- III. The propensity of evil in the days of Noah. Gen. 6:5-8

- I. The proximity of Adam to the days of Noah.
Gen. 5:28-32

- A. The generation of Noah's Father was the ninth generation from Adam. vs. 28-29
 1. Noah's father, "Lamech lived 182 years, and had a son." vs. 28
 - * The name Lamech "Lemek" means powerful or conquer.
 2. Lamech's son was Noah, "And he called his name Noah, saying, "And he called his name Noah, saying, "This one will comfort us concerning our work and the toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD has cursed." vs. 29
 - a. Noah "Noach", means rest or comfort regarding the work and toil of man's hands due to the curse. Gen. 5:29
 - b. The consequences of the fall were still fresh in the minds of man though it had been 1056 years past. Gen. 5:28
 3. Noah was a descendant of the line of Seth, who began to call on the name of the Lord Yahweh. Gen. 4:26

4. The Great Grandfather of Noah was Enoch, he walked with God and was translated from the earth, escaping death. Gen. 5:24
5. The Grandfather of Noah was Methuselah, whose name means “when he dies the end will come”, he was the longest living person, 969 years. Gen. 5:27

B. Noah’s generation was the tenth from Adam.
vs. 30-32

1. Lamech after he begot Noah, lived 595 years and had sons and daughters. vs. 30
 - a. The birth of many other sons and daughter are not given by names, but merely mentioned for the record. vs. 4, 7, 10, 13, 16, 19, 22, 26, 30
 - b. But the years are specifically given and recorded, there being no reason to believe there is a gap in the genealogy of chapter five.
2. All the days of Lamech were 777 years; and he died. vs. 31
3. Noah fathered three sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth after the ripe old age of 500. Gen. 5:32

* So to this point it has been 1,556 years of the history of man’s existence
4. Noah lived 950 years. Gen. 9:29

Illustration

The close proximity of Noah to Adam’s death may seem a bit long, until you put it in relationship to their life spans being vital for the transfer of information.

1. The average life span of all ten generations recorded in Genesis five is 857 years.
2. If you divide the 126 years of gap between Noah and Adam’s death into the average age of 857 years, you get the ratio of 6.8 in proportion to the 857 years.
3. Now if we take 70 years as the average age of a man today and divide the ratio of 6.8 into 70 we come up with 10.2 years.
4. So to get an accurate concept of the time separation between Noah and Adam, it would be as if your Grandfather had died 10.2 years before your birth, yet your father had known him a good forty to forty-five years to communicate all he knew about him!

Application

1. If there are also no gaps in the Genesis record after the flood then it gives to us what most believe, a period of 2,000 years between Adam and Abraham.
 - a. Even though Noah was born in 1056 B.C. , 126 years after Adam’s death in 930 B.C., and 14 years before the death of Seth in 1042 B.C., note the close related connection.
 - b. Enoch lived 308 years as a contemporary of Adam.
 - c. Methuselah lived 243 years as a contemporary with Adam.
 - c. Lamech, Noah’s father lived 56 years as a contemporary with Adam.

- d. Eight of the ten generation were alive at the birth of Lamech except for Adam's and Seth's.
2. In view of this, Noah had first hand knowledge of Creation, the fall, the murder of Abel and the taking of Enoch by God without ever seeing death.
- a. So then Terah the father of Abraham was born 222 years after the flood. Gen. 11:10-24
 - b. Noah lived 350 years after the flood. Gen. 9:28
 - c. Noah and Terah would have been contemporaries for 128 years.
 - d. Terah begot Abram at 130 years not 70 as it seems to imply because Terah died at 205 years of age and Abram left Haran at 75 years of age, so if you subtract them you get 130 years. Gen. 11:26
 - e. The age of Terah at the birth of Abram is 352 years after the flood, telling us Noah died two years before Abram was born. Gen. 11:32; 12:4
 - f. If you do not correct the age of Terah for the birth of Abram, then you would come up with Noah living 58 years as a contemporary of Abram.

The proximity of Noah to Adam was relatively close!

II. The perversity of angels in the days of Noah. Gen. 6:1-4

- A. The angelic and the human activity on the earth. vs. 1-2
1. The human multiplication was great, "Now it came to pass, when men began to multiply

- on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them." vs. 1
- a. The context places this section with chapter five, when there was a population explosion occurring.
 - b. The word men "adam" has the article indicating humans, mankind in general.
 - c. The daughters also refer to normal women born to men, recorded in Genesis five.
 - 1) According to the mandate God gave to Adam to be fruitful and multiply. Gen. 1:28
 - 2) According to the design of God of procreation between male and female. Gen. 4:1
2. The angelic involvement was genetic tampering. vs. 2
- a. The "sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful." vs. 2a-b

* There are four basic interpretations held as to who are the sons of God.

 - 1) Some believe it refers to the godly seed of Seth who intermarried with the seed of Cain.
 - 2) Other believe it refers to superior kings and rulers.
 - 3) Then there are those who believe this is demon possession.
 - 4) Still others believe it refers to angels.

- b. The evidence for the phrase “sons of God” in the Old Testament is important.
- 1) The phrase is never used for man in the entire Old Testament, it is only used for angels. Job. 1:6; 2:1; 38:7; Ps. 29:1; 89:6; Dan. 3:25
 - 2) Though there are text identifying the believer as children of God, but not by the phrase used in our text. Deut. 32:5; Ps. 73:15; 80:17; Hos. 1:10
 - 4) The New Testament does use the phrase for those born-again. Matt. 5:9; Jn. 1:12; Rom. 8:14; Gal. 4:6
 - 5) The LXX translates the passage as angels.
- b. The sons of God “took wives for themselves of all whom they chose.” vs. 2c
- 1) The simple and most obvious sense is that these angelic beings entered into marriage covenants.
 - 2) This was a corruption of the marriage institution God had made for man. Gen. 2:24-25
 - 3) The sin is parallel to that of the Garden, what was forbidden. Gen. 3:6
 - a) The sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful, as Eve the fruit.
 - * The lust of the eye and flesh.

- b) The sons of God took wives for themselves of all whom they chose, as Eve.
 - * The pride of life.
 - c) Every appearance of angels in the Bible is in the male gender. Gen. 18:8
 - 4) The text does not imply any forcing of the woman, but a consent of the will by both their fathers and the woman regarding the union of marriages.
- B. The divine verdict on the angelic activity on the earth. vs. 3
1. God declared, “And the LORD said, My Spirit shall not strive with man forever.” vs. 3a-b
 - a. The words are those of Yahweh, the covenant God.
 - b. The word strife “diyn” means to contend or plead, some have pointed to cognates to mean “abide”.
 - c. Both implying the end of God’s spirit with man to turn him from his sin, death and judgment.
 - 1) There is a parallel as God expelled man from the Garden, lest he eat and live forever. Gen. 3:22
 - 2) The context here could indicate man attempting to live forever through this angelic-man co-habitation?

- d. The historical perspective of interpretation that these were in fact angels is insightful and of great value.
- 1) This is the oldest view and that of most modern commentators.
 - 2) This view is assumed in the earliest Jewish exegesis, the Dead Sea Scrolls, etc.
 - 3) The earliest Christian writers believed and taught this interpretation, Justin, Irenaeus, Clement of Alexandria, Tertullian, Origen.
2. God declared that man is flesh with a physical body that is temporal, “for he is indeed flesh. vs. 3c
- a. Flesh is used as corrupt humanity, fallen, sinful in verse twelve.
 - * “For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be. So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God.” Rom. 8:6-8
 - b. God’s Spirit is the life-giving source, not man’s engineering of genetics to live eternally or be god-like. Gen. 2:7
3. God therefore declared a set a time period for judgment for the destruction of the human race, “Yet his days shall be one hundred and twenty years.” vs. 3d

- a. Some believe this refers to the life-span, but some lived more than 120 after the flood, so it would be a contradiction.
 - b. Abraham live 175 years, Isaac 180, Jacob 147 and Aaron 123.
- C. The divine description of the angelic activity with the daughters of men. vs. 4
1. The inhabitants were identified, “There were giants on the earth in those days, and also afterward.” vs. 4a-b
 - a. The word giants “nephelims” comes from “nephel”, to fall, cast down.
 - b. The general concenses is that it refers to vicious people, attackers, warriors.
 - c. These giants were present “in those days” and “afterwards”, meaning pre-flood, the period od these angels “sons of God” came into the daughters of men and bore children, not after the flood but during the 120 years of grace till the flood.
 - * These giants were the result of these marriages!
 - d. The Scriptures tell us that a third of the angels are fallen angels. Rev. 12:4
 2. The indicated sin is when “the sons of God came in to the daughters of men and they bore children to them.” vs. 4c
 - a. The phrase “came in to” is a euphemism for sexual intercourse.

- b. The outcome was children from both parents.
- 1) Angels are Satan's ministers who can transform themselves into ministers of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works. 2Cor. 11:15
 - 2) The believer does not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places." Eph. 6:12
* The unbeliever does not believe in God, Satan, etc.
3. The identity of the individual giant was that they "were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown." vs. 4d-e
- a. Men of renown "shem", refers to a reputable name.
* Luther translated it tyrants.
 - b. The context is angelic co-mingling with human women with the line of Cain, not Seth.
* Their reputation was known throughout the earth.
 - c. The phrase giants "nephalims", does appear for the descendants of Anak, but as mere men of great stature for God destroyed all, no one survived the flood, the context is human. Num. 13:33

The Effects Of Sexual Promiscuity On A Nation, promoting sex without marriage not only brings destruction to the persons involved but also to the society. As the saying goes, "History repeats itself." An anthropologist, J. D. Unwin, conducted a study on eighty-eight civilizations that have come and gone in world history. In every one of these eighty-eight civilizations, the morals and strict sexual conduct started off the same, but then things became lax giving the people more and more freedom to express sexual desires whenever they pleased. That freedom began the destruction of the civilization. First came venereal disease, then breaking up of homes. Children were brought up in unstable environments and patterned their behavior after their parents' behavior, making each succeeding generation more degenerate than the last. Thus those civilizations eventually were destroyed. (McDowell: Why Wait -pp. 261-62)
* A study of 5,000 civilizations revealed that 50 were characterized as sexually free and confusing the sex roles without distinction or boundaries bringing about the decay and death of all 50 civilizations. (Dobson, Sept. 10)

Application

1. There are those who object to the interpretation of the sons of God to be angels.
 - 1) They point to the words of Jesus as their proof text, "Angels neither marry nor given in marriage in heaven." Matt. 22:30

- 2) But the context is the resurrection and comparison to the angels that are in heaven.
 - 3) The text is not teaching that angels are sexless, for every time they appear they are males, even as the men of Sodom wanted to know the angels sexually. Gen. 18:8
 - 4) Polygamy is not the sin here, for it was already being practiced, not being unequally yoked. Gen. 4:19
2. The New Testament provides for us strong confirmation for the interpretation of angels.
- a. The phrase “sons of God” is found for man, those born of God’s Spirit, but never for angels.
 - b. Peter tells us that certain angels were so vile that God incarcerated them with chains in Tartarus, never to be released until judgment and ties them to the day of Noah. 2Pet. 2:4-5
 - c. Jude identifies certain angels who kept not their first estate with sexual sin, as Sodom and Gomorrah. Jude 1:6-7
 - 1) No angel can be saved, only man!
 - 2) If we did not have these two texts, I would not give it a thought, but we really are bound to the New Testament interpretation!
3. The modern technology of genetic engineering is a very dangerous field in that it’s purpose is to obtain as close to perfect, beautiful and genius children.
- a. No one knows the absolute outcome with certainty of selective engineering or cloning.
 - b. The liabilities for law-suits is one big can of worms.

- c. The victims are the children they are producing, if they are unwanted, rejected or merely paraded like some kind of trophy.
- d. God has His limites, “Also I gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities. And lack of bread in all your places; Yet you have not returned to Me,” Says the LORD. I also withheld rain from you, When there were still three months to the harvest. I made it rain on one city, I withheld rain from another city. One part was rained upon, And where it did not rain the part withered. So two or three cities wandered to another city to drink water, But they were not satisfied; Yet you have not returned to Me,” Says the LORD.” Amos 4:6-8
* “Therefore thus will I do to you, O Israel; Because I will do this to you, Prepare to meet your God, O Israel!” vs. 12

The perversity of angels in the days of Noah was real!

III. The propensity of evil in the days of Noah. Gen. 6:5-8

- A. The divine knowledge of the evil of man. vs. 5
 1. The observation of God, “Then the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth.” vs. 5a
 - a. He observed through time the existance of man and indicated His full awareness

- of the reality of the extent of the evil going on.
- b. The contrast can not be missed, as God saw that everything in creation was good and very good, but now “the wickedness was great in the earth.”
 - c. The Creator brought into existence everything out of nothing, from a chaotic disorder into harmonious order and life, but now it had gone back to chaos and disorder by the hands of man.
2. The declaration of God, “And that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.” vs. 5b
 - a. The phrase is indicating the extent of the evil in the imagination, the desire thoughts of the heart.
 - 1) The word intent “yester” has the idea of framing and molding as a potter.
 - 2) The word thoughts “machashabah” means device, plan or purpose.
 - 3) The heart “lev” is the center of human personality, the seat of mind, intellect and will towards evil, the very source!
 - 4) This is the depraved nature of man with incredible potential for evil. Jer. 17:9; Matt. 15:18-19
 - b. The extent of the depravity of man is very explicit and it never changes, Jesus said, “for men love darkness rather than light.” Jn. 3:19

- 1) “There is none righteous, no, not one. None that seek God.” Rom. 3:10-11
 - 2) That is not to say man has no capacity to do good, but not to be saved!
- B. The divine sorrow over man’s evil. vs. 6
1. The lamentation, “And the Lord was sorry that He had made man on the earth. vs. 6a
 - a. The word sorry “nacham” means to change one’s mind.
 - 1) The root word means to breath deeply displaying one’s emotions, usually with sorrow with the idea of a change of attitude. Ex. 3:14; Judges 2:18; 1Sam. 15:11
 - 2) God is consistent in His love that is an expression of His holiness and must act in accord to it and can not except sin or approve of it. Num. 23:19
 - b. Therefore, it was man that changed from living under God’s word and provisions for fellowship to self-will and evil, God remained the same, therefore He could not ignore the sin, but had to judge it.

* As fire is unchanging, it is the material that is subject to fire that determines the effect on it, so with God!

 - 1) Man was to enjoy the earth.
 - 2) Man corrupted himself and the earth.
 2. The broken heart of God, “And He was grieved in His heart.” vs. 6b

- a. The word grieved “atsab” means to be vex and displeased.
- b. The word is said to be used to express the most intense form of human emotion, a mixture of rage and bitter anguish.
 - 1) The word is used for God’s feelings in only two other places, but never out of control as man. Ps. 78:40; Is. 63:10
 - 2) It is used for Dinah’s brother at her rape and David at Absalom’s death.
- c. The idea is one of feeling pain over the life choices of man regarding evil and indicates the grief to be “in His heart”.
- d. God had already given the prophetic rest and relief from work and the toil in Noah from the disappointment of His creation.

C. The divine sentence over man’s evil. vs. 7

- 1. God pronounced His verdict judgment, “So the LORD said, “I will destroy man whom I have created “bara” from the face of the earth.” vs. 7a-b
 - a. The word destroy “machah” means to wipe out or blot out, to obliterate.
 - b. The word is used for erasing name from the records. Ex. 17:14; 32:32-33
- 2. God included everything, “Both man and beast, creeping things and birds of the air. vs. 7c-d
 - * The reversal of all He created. Gen. 1-2

- 3. God affirmed his emotional pain, “For I am sorry I have made “asah” them.” vs. 7e
 - a. God never brings judgment without first warning, as Egypt, Eli, Israel, Babylon and Jerusalem. Amos 3:7
 - b. God’s judgment is based on the change of man’s wickedness and sure outcome!
- D. The divine exception among man’s evil. vs. 8
 - 1. The person, “But Noah”, which stands in sharp contrast to the proclamation of utter destruction.
 - a. He is the tinge of hope in a hopeless world to bring rest and comfort in the new world.
 - b. He is the expression of mercy in the midst of judgment.
 - 2. The spiritual blessing, “Found grace in the eyes of the LORD.”
 - a. This is the first time grace appears, but not the first time to be imparted for Adam and Eve were recipients of it.
 - 1) Grace is what man does not deserve.
 - 2) Grace towards Noah was the foreshadowing of the Age of Grace to escape the wrath to come. Rom. 5:9; 1Thess. 5:9
 - b. The phrase “grace in the eyes of the LORD” refers to finding favor, an expression for prayer being heard by God. Gen. 18:3; Ex. 33:12, 13, 16, 17

- 1) The man Noah alone and his family would be saved.
 - 2) “Even though Noah, Daniel, and Job were in it, as I live,” says the Lord GOD, “they would deliver neither son nor daughter; they would deliver only themselves by their righteousness.”
Ezk. 14:20
- c. The unmistakable judgment of God is affirmed, “The eyes of the LORD.”
* He is Omnipresent and Omniscient!

In Florida, an atheist became incensed over the preparation for Easter and Passover holidays and decided to contact the local ACLU about the discrimination inflicted on atheists by the constant celebrations afforded to Christians and Jews with all their holidays while the atheists had no holiday to celebrate.

The ACLU jumped on the opportunity to once again pick up the cause of the godless and assigned their sharpest attorneys to the case.

The case was brought before a wise judge who after listening to the long, passionate presentation of the ACLU lawyers, promptly banged his gavel and declared, “Case dismissed!”

The lead ACLU lawyer immediately stood and objected to the ruling and said, “Your honor, how can you possibly dismiss this case? Surely the Christians have Christmas, Easter and many other observances. And the Jews--why in addition to Passover they have Yom Kippur and Hanukkah and yet my client and all other atheists have no such holiday!”

The judge leaned forward in his chair and simply said, “Obviously your client is too confused to know about, or for that matter, even celebrate the atheists' holiday!”

The ACLU lawyer pompously said “We are aware of no such holiday for atheists, just when might that be, your honor?”

The judge said “Well it comes every year on exactly the same date---April 1st!”

The fool says in his heart, “There is no God.” Psalm 14:1; Psalm 53:1

Application

1. The evil that goes on today is just as wicked as in the days of Noah, if not worse.

a. Jesus said, “But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.” Matt. 24:37-39

b. Jesus said, “Likewise as it was also in the days of Lot: They ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; but on the day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all. Even so will it be in the day when the Son of Man is revealed.” Lk. 17:28-30

2. The sorrow in the heart of God is the same today as in the days of Noah and He is just as patient, but He will bring judgment to all.

* “For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but cast them down to hell and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved for judgment; and did not spare the ancient world, but saved Noah, one of eight people; a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood on the world of the ungodly; and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, making them an example to those who afterward would live ungodly; and delivered righteous Lot, who was oppressed by the filthy conduct of the wicked.” 2Pet. 2:4-7

3. The ones who are the exceptions to the coming judgment are those under grace like Noah.

a. Hebrew says, “By faith Noah, being divinely warned of things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his household, by which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.” Heb. 11:7

b. Peter speaking of Jesus descending to Hades says, “Who formerly were disobedient, when once the Divine longsuffering waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.” 1Pet. 3:20

c. Peter again tells us, “The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.” 2Pet. 3:9

d. “For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord.” 1Thess. 4:15-17

The propensity of evil in the days of Noah was continuously!

Conclusion

This was Noah in the world that he lived by these three recorded facts.

- I. The proximity of Adam to the days of Noah was relatively close!
- II. The perversity of angels in the days of Noah was real!
- III. The propensity of evil in the days of Noah was continuous!
